Miss Beverly Ann Westwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Westwood, 18245 Van Ness Ave., walked down the aisle of the St. Catherine Labourer Church, on the arm of her father, at high noon recently to exchange marriage vows with William C. McLean. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McLean, 1028 Arlington Ave.

The wedding gown of organza over taffeta was designed on empire lines with a large collar of Alencon lace. The detachable train was bordered in lace. Her three-tiered veil was held by a pearl pill box and she carried a cascade of elephant leaves and African violets.

Miss Pat Westwood was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Mary Rigali, Jackie Wegelin, Lynn Peterson and Marianne St. Andre.

Harold Mastroi was best man and the 250 guests were seated by Jerry McLean, Ronald Westwood, Kevin Eliason and Don File.

Rev. James P. Colberg officiated at the double ring marriage rites. A reception and buffet luncheon were held at the Torrance Woman's Club after which the newlyweds left for a three weeks honeymoon at Lake Louise, Canada. The new address is 921 Arlington, Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High school.

Her husband, a Torrance High graduate, is now with the Torrance Police Dept. He served six years with the United States Marine Corps.
